Dear SOHN Members,

As SOHN President and on behalf of the SOHN Board of Directors and Education Committee, we invite you to the SOHN 30th Anniversary Congress and Nursing Symposium in Toronto, Canada, September 15-19. Toronto is a beautiful and exciting city with many opportunities for sight-seeing, touring the international neighborhoods and dining adventures. During our stay the Toronto Film Festival will be in full swing with many international celebrities in town to attend the event.

Education sessions will feature topics of interest from the latest clinical innovations to the hottest management/leadership issues. Our Keynote Speaker, Bernice Buresh, will challenge you to “Tell The World What You Do”, while Melodie Chenevert, Closing Speaker, will rejuvenate and delight you with “Nursing, The Lost Art”.

Come celebrate 30 years of success, strength and leadership as an organized and influential professional society that strives for excellence in ORL nursing care. Celebrate SOHN!

I look forward to seeing you in Toronto for this memorable congress.

Hope Andresen
Hope Andresen, RN, CORLN
President, SOHN

Why Attend the SOHN 30th Anniversary Congress?

1. The largest gathering of ORL nursing in the World!
2. Re-energize your personal and professional life by learning, laughing and relaxing with colleagues in Toronto.
3. To participate in over 65 sessions with more than 80 speakers ~ choose from a multitude of ORL subspecialty courses and earn nursing contact hours.
4. To learn the latest developments in ORL nursing research.
5. To interact one-on-one with industry representatives and learn about new ORL products and treatments.
6. To network with colleagues from diverse ORL practice settings and geographic settings and from around the world.

Program Objectives:

The Congress Program is designed to:

- Integrate technical and clinical innovations in ORL nursing through education and research
- Provide information related to current issues, research, trends and future challenges influencing ORL nursing practice
- Integrate clinical knowledge and practicum skills through hands-on interactive sessions
- Demonstrate a renewed sense of excitement and personal commitment to ORL care through networking and collaboration

Target Audience

Nurses interested in developing or enhancing their knowledge, skills and expertise in ORL nursing and patient care and who value networking with ORL colleagues from around the world.

Program Goal

The 30th Anniversary Congress & Nursing Symposium strives to provide educational opportunities to enrich knowledge, highlight research and promote excellence in ORL nursing and patient care.
Consider an international adventure this fall. Attend SOHN’s 30th Anniversary Congress and Nursing Symposium in Toronto, Canada ~ September 15-19, 2006 and enjoy a multicultural experience. Toronto is a city filled with quaint neighborhoods, restaurants and cafes, and of course there are plenty of shopping opportunities in the Underground City (PATH), a seven mile subterranean walkway lined with eateries, shops, banks, medical offices and theaters.

The Toronto Facts:
- Situated 566 feet above sea level on the northern shore of Lake Ontario, Toronto is one of the southernmost cities in Canada. In fact, it has nearly the same latitude as northern California.
- Toronto is home to more than 100 cultures.
- Toronto is Canada’s largest city, with a population of 4.7 million.
- Toronto is the 5th largest city in North America, after Mexico City, New York, Los Angeles, and Chicago.
- One-quarter of Canada’s population is located within 100 miles of Toronto.
- More than 60% of the population of the USA is within a 90 minute flight.
- There are two official languages in Canada – English and French.
- Toronto has an unparalleled variety and spice; enjoy the international fusion found in neighborhoods, foods and architecture. Plan now to attend SOHN’s 30th Anniversary Congress and Nursing Symposium and flavor the international fusion of ORL Nursing.
Keynote Address

From Silence to Voice: Tell the World What You Do

Bernice Buresh
Saturday, September 16
9:45 – 10:45 am

The work of specialty nurses is essential to the public health, yet much of it is insufficiently known and understood by the public. Join this journalist and nursing advocate as she explains what nurses must tell the world about their work and demonstrates ways to do it.

BERNICE BURESHER is a journalist, international lecturer, and co-author of the award-winning book, From Silence to Voice: What Nurses Know and Must Communicate to the Public. She has been a reporter for the Milwaukee Sentinel, a correspondent and bureau chief for Newsweek, and a professor of journalism at Boston University. She is on the board of the Center for Nursing Advocacy (www.nursingadvocacy.org) which monitors the depiction of nursing in the news and entertainment media.
